Disaster Recovery – Relocation Program Overview

Florida Fall Flooding 2026

The Volusia County Community Assistance Division implements a disaster recovery program to assist households following a disaster declared by Executive Order of the President of the United States or the Governor of Florida.

Funds are currently available for:

- Up to 3 months of rental assistance, including security and utility deposits

Eligibility Requirements for the Program

- The applicant must provide documentation of being displaced as a direct result of the declared disaster (i.e. letter from property manager/landlord, eviction notice, etc.)
- Address of damaged property must be located within Volusia County except the city limits of Daytona Beach or Deltona
- Have not moved into a new property
- The home must be a site built or a post-1994 manufactured home on land that is owned by the applicant or landlord
- The damaged and assisted property's just value cannot exceed $346,750
- The applicant must be current on Volusia County taxes
- The applicant must have applied for FEMA Disaster Assistance or filed a claim with their insurance provider
- The household annual income cannot exceed the Area Median Income (AMI) income below:

Household Size →	1	2	3	4	5	6
1% - 80% AMI →	$55,550	$63,450	$71,400	$79,300	$85,650	$92,000
81% - 120% AMI → (Limited Funding Available)	$83,280	$95,160	$107,040	$118,920	$128,520	$138,000

How do I receive an application?

Residents interested in applying for assistance must request a phone interview by contacting the Community Assistance Division at (386) 736-5955 or communityassistance@volusia.gov. Applicants will need to provide their name, phone number, and time of availability. Phone interviews will be reviewed to determine if the applicant and home meet the initial criteria and does not guarantee assistance. If necessary, applicants may be placed on a wait list.

What do I need to apply?

Application packet should include the following items:

- Completed and signed application
- Copies of the supporting documents listed on the application documentation checklist, that are applicable to your household

What happens after I apply?

You will be notified by mail or email as to one of the following:

- That additional information or documents are necessary
- That you are ineligible for the program, including why
- That you are eligible for the program and what will happen next
