Public meeting to address Spruce Creek Preserve plan

Volusia County staff will accept public comments on the draft trail and recreation plan for the Doris Leeper Spruce Creek Preserve at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 3, at the Atlantic Center for the Arts, 1414 Art Center Ave., New Smyrna Beach.

The recreational plan identifies current and future recreational opportunities based on the state-approved Comprehensive Management Plan for this valuable conservation land. Proposed future improvements include multi-use trails, water-access amenities and educational opportunities.

A copy of the draft map is available at www.volusia.org/environmental.

The preserve is managed by Volusia County and owned by the State of Florida, the St. Johns River Water Management District, Volusia County and the City of Port Orange. It's bordered by Spruce Creek and Rose Bay on the north, I-95 on the west, and the Intracoastal Waterway on the east. The state-owned portions are governed by a management plan reviewed and approved by the Division of State Lands.

For more information, call the county's Environmental Management Division at 386-736-5927.
