

Beginning Vegetable Gardening

August 28th, 2009

9 am – 3 pm

Pre-registration only $25 includes lunch

The UF-IFAS Volusia County Extension will be hosting a class on “Beginning a Vegetable Gardening” on August 28th, 2009. This class is aimed at homeowners that want to learn about growing a vegetable garden in Florida. Topics include Basic Design and Preparation, Container Vegetable gardening, Diseases and Pests in the Garden, and Herb Gardening. Pre-Registration of $25 (includes lunch) is required. This class will be held at the Piggott Community Center (504 Big Tree Road) located in South Daytona. To register for this class, send in your check, money order or cash to the Ag Extension office located in Deland at the Fairgrounds (3100 East New York Avenue, Deland). The class is from 9 am - 3 pm. Speakers include, Tom MacCubbin (Orange County Extension Agent – emeritus), Karen Stauderman, (Volusia County Extension Agent), Patty Bruda and Rich Cherry (Volusia County Master Gardeners). Contact Karen Stauderman for more information at (386) 822-5778 (Deland), (386) 257-6012 (Daytona Beach) or (386) 423-3368 (New Smyrna Beach).