

Beef Cattle Reproduction Management School

Pregnancy Palpation
Artificial Insemination (AI)

August 9 - 13, 2010
Deseret Ranch

The Central Florida Livestock Agents (CFLAG) are conducting a combined pregnancy palpation and artificial insemination school.

Agenda:

Aug 9: 9:00 AM - 5:30 PM - Registration, Anatomy and Physiology, Safe Cattle Handling, Options for Pregnancy Diagnosis, Palpation Techniques, Vaccination Program and Breeding Season Management.

Aug 10: 8:00 AM - 5:30 PM - Palpation Lab, Genetic Management, Nutrition for Reproduction and Implications of Body Condition Score, Estrus Synchronization and Heat Detection

Aug 11: 8:00 AM - 5:30 PM - Palpation Lab, AI Technique, Heifer Selection and Bull Selection

Aug 12: 8:00 AM - 5:30 PM - Palpation and AI Lab, Coping with Calving Problems and Bull Breeding Soundness Exams and Semen Handling

Aug 13: 8:00 AM - 1:00 PM - Palpation and AI Lab

Registration ($300) Includes lunch, breaks for 5 days, books and all supplies
Make checks payable to CFLAG

Contact:

Joe Walter @ 407-948-8810 or jwalter@ufl.edu for details or reservations

Speakers to include:

- ◆ Dr. Alvin Warnick, Emeritus Professor
Animal Science - Reproductive Physiology
- ◆ Dr. Cliff Lamb, UF Professor Animal
Science
- ◆ Dr. Matt Hersom, UF Assistant Professor
- Extension Beef Cattle Specialist
- ◆ Dr. Matt Walter, D.V.M.
- ◆ James Umphrey, M.S., American
Breeder Service
- ◆ Sharon Gamble, M.S., Volusia Co.
- ◆ Mark Shuffit, M.S., Marion Co.
- ◆ Ed Jennings, M.S., Pasco/Hernando Co.
- ◆ Joe Walter, M.S., Brevard Co.
- ◆ Mark Warren, B.S., Flagler Co.
- ◆ Dennis Mudge, M.S., Orange Co.
- ◆ Randy Bateman, B.S., Osceola Co.