

Gardeners Hotline

Karen Stauderman, University of Florida Residential/Urban Extension Agent and Master Gardener Coordinator, hosts this weekly gardening call-in program.

Produced by Daytona State College, this program airs live at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays and repeats at 4 p.m. Saturdays on WCEU (Channel15).

It runs 13 weeks and features a wide array of horticultural issues and topics. It is aimed for Central Florida residents and gardening enthusiasts.

2008-2009 schedule:

Sept. 23, 2008

Topic: Starting a Garden
Guest: Saundra Hudson, Volusia County Master Gardener

Sept. 30, 2008

Topic: Water Gardens
Guest: Kathy Smith, owner of Tropical Water Gardens

Oct. 7, 2008

Topic: Roses
Guest: Mark Nelson, owner of Nelson's Roses

Oct. 14, 2008

Topic: Annuals & Perennials
Guest: Debbie Pell, owner of Lindley's Nursery

Oct. 21, 2008

Topic: Trees
Guest: Howard Jeffries, Volusia County Master Gardener

Oct. 28, 2008

Topic: Interiorscape
Guest: Liz Felter, Orange County Horticulture Extension

Nov. 4, 2008

Topic: Orchids
Guest: George Hausermann Jr., orchid specialist

Nov. 11, 2008

Topic: Citrus
Guest: Ross Pell, owner of Pell's Citrus Nursery

Nov. 18, 2008

Topic: Propagation
Guest: Tom Wichman, UF Florida Master Gardener Coordinator

Dec. 2, 2008

Topic: Controlling Bugs Naturally
Guest: Stacey Simmons, Environmental Specialist, DPI

Dec. 9, 2008

Topic: Bonsai
Guest: Louise Leister, Flagler County FYN specialist

Dec. 16, 2008

Topic: Turf
Guest: Dr. Richard Tyson, Orange County Extension Specialist

Dec. 23, 2008

Topic: Frost protection in the Landscape
Guest: Ryan Atwood, Multi-county Extension Specialist