Summary/Highlights: The supervisor of elections asks approval of precinct line revisions to reflect recently annexed properties. Florida statute provides that precincts shall not be changed except with the consent of the supervisor and a majority of the county council. Approval will eliminate precincts where some voters would be eligible to vote in municipal elections and others would not. The exact legal description of each precinct is available upon request. The maps and legal descriptions of all annexed properties are available in the supervisor of elections office.
Recommended Motion: Approval.
