LEC Homeschool Classes, 2020-2021

Time and date	Activity/Location	Overview	Grades	Max #
10 am to noon Wednesdays 10/7/20 10/21/20	Cephalopod Exploration Lyonia Environmental Center 2150 Eustace Ave. Deltona Drop-off only	The smallest of these intelligent ocean dwelling creatures is an inch long, and the largest is up to 60 feet in length! Learn about various species and examine the internal and external anatomy as we conduct a squid dissection.	4-9	10
10 am to noon Wednesdays 11/4/20 3/10/21	Crazy for Conifers! Lake Ashby Park 4150 Boy Scout Camp Road New Smyrna Beach Parents may attend	Learn about conifers and how to identify Florida's cypress trees as we explore the ecosystems of Lake Ashby Park. We'll use nature as our inspiration and our artistic expression to create an original piece of art during a plein air painting experience.	3-8	15
10 am to noon Wednesdays 12/02/20 12/16/20	Gifts from Nature Lyonia Environmental Center 2150 Eustace Ave., Deltona Parents may attend	Hike through Lyonia Preserve and learn about our feathered friends' nest building abilities! From the majestic bald eagle's nest that could be 6 feet across to the tiny hummingbird's 1.5 inch nest, we'll learn about the materials used and the construction process from start to finish. Following the hike and discussion, we'll return to the center to create a bird nest take-home craft made from materials found in nature.	1-8	15
10 am to noon Wednesdays 1/06/21 1/20/21	Full Steam Ahead! Green Springs Park 994 Enterprise/Osteen Road Enterprise Parents may attend	The steamboat business was booming in the 1800s here in Volusia County. Learn about the history of the town of Enterprise as we explore the beautiful trails and the flora and fauna of Green Springs Park.	3-8	15
10 am to noon Wednesdays 2/3/21 2/17/21	Put it on my Bill Lyonia Environmental Center 2150 Eustace Ave. Deltona Drop-off only	A bird's bill or beak is its universal tool. Birds use their bills for eating, defense, feeding young, building nests, preening, scratching, courting and attacking. We'll learn about how the size and shape helps determine what a bird eats and try our luck at "catching food" in a fun interactive activity.	1-8	10
10 am to noon Wednesdays 4/7/21 4/21/21	Rockin' at the Park Gemini Springs Park 37 Dirksen Drive DeBary Parents may attend	Take a step back in time to learn about the history of this beautiful park. Challenge your friends or family members to some friendly competition on a nature scavenger hunt hike. We'll finish up the program with a fun, artistic rock painting party!	4-10	25
