NATURE AT NIGHT

Thursday, May 18th
6:00 P.M. - 7:30 P.M.

May is peak spawning season for Horseshoe Crabs! Tess Sailor-Tynes, Conservation Coordinator, for Marine Discovery Center will discuss the importance of this species and the conservation work that is being done. After the discussion, we’ll enjoy pizza and non-alcoholic beverages provided by The Friends of The Lyonia Environmental Center.