Volusia County Seeks Applicants for Hurricane Housing Recovery Program Funds

VOLUSIA COUNTY – Volusia County has received Hurricane Housing Recovery Program funds to assist homeowners impacted by Hurricane Ian or Nicole with owner-occupied rehabilitation. Volusia County Community Assistance is accepting applications from residents who sustained hurricane related damage to their home and still need repairs. Applications are available at <https://www.volusia.org/hurricanehousing>.

Residents interested in applying must contact the Community Assistance Division at 386-736-5955 or communityassistance@volusia.org to schedule a prescreening appointment. The appointment will be used to determine if the applicant and home meet the initial criteria; it does not guarantee assistance into the program. Eligible applicants will be processed based on funding availability.

For more information on this program and the application process, visit <https://www.volusia.org/hurricanehousing>. Questions may be directed to Special Projects Coordinator Camila Ramirez at 386-736-5955, ext. 12962, or cramirez@volusia.org.
