What is this program?

In an effort to assist residential renters who have experienced a loss of income as a direct result of COVID-19, Volusia County Community Assistance has developed the COVID-19 Rental Assistance Program.

This program is designed to assist eligible households with payment of their rent for one (1) to three (3) months. The amount of assistance is capped at $1,500.00/month.

Assistance will be provided on a first-come, first-served basis and a limited number of applications will be accepted based on funding availability.

What requirements need to be met in order to apply?

- The dwelling unit must be located in Volusia County.
- There must be an active rental agreement or lease in the applicant's name.
- The rent must have been current as of March 13, 2020.
- The applicant must be able to document a loss of income as a direct result of COVID-19.
- The household income must be at or below the Area Median Income Level (AMI) of $77,880. To estimate yearly household income, gross monthly income will be multiplied by 12. If yearly household income exceeds this amount, further documentation will be reviewed to determine the possibility of eligibility if your household size is larger than 4 persons.

 Additional eligibility or program requirements may apply*

What do I need in order to apply for the program?

To apply for the program you will need to complete an application package; which can be found online at www.volusia.org/C19RA. The first page of the package will detail additional supporting documentation you must provide. You do not need to provide items if they are not applicable to your household.

How do I apply for the program?
