¹ See Section 125.66(3)(c), Florida Statutes.

In accordance with the provisions of controlling law, even notwithstanding the fact that an exemption noted above may apply, the County hereby publishes the following information:

1. Summary of the proposed ordinance (must include a statement of the public purpose, such as serving the public health, safety, morals and welfare):

The proposed ordinance dissolves the Animal Control Board. The requirement that the Animal Control Board make recommendations regarding standards and procedures that impact the Animal Services Division is not the most efficient or effective method of advancing the public purpose of animal control. The Council has determined that to reduce government and increase public service efficiencies it no longer requires the services of an Animal Control Board to provide recommendations about the operations of Animal Services. Overall, the ordinance will provide for more efficient public services, thus promoting the general economic welfare of the people of Volusia County.

2. An estimate of the direct economic impact of the proposed ordinance on private, for-profit businesses in the County, if any:

(a) An estimate of direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur;

There is expected to be no direct compliance costs for businesses.

(b) Any new charge or fee imposed by the proposed ordinance or for which businesses will be financially responsible; and

There will be no new charges or fees imposed by the proposed ordinance.

(c) An estimate of the County's regulatory costs, including estimated revenues from any new charges or fees to cover such costs.

There are no new regulatory costs that will be incurred with the passage of this ordinance.

3. Good faith estimate of the number of businesses likely to be impacted by the proposed ordinance:

The estimated businesses that may be impacted by the proposed ordinance is 0.

4. Additional information the governing body deems useful (if any):
