

Community Preparedness Assistant Volunteer

Overview

We're seeking dedicated volunteers to serve as Community Preparedness Assistants to help strengthen our community's resilience and emergency readiness. This role supports local emergency management efforts through education, outreach, and coordination activities.

Readiness Roles

- Assist in community outreach events Distribute emergency preparedness information to neighborhoods
- Provide support organizing preparedness workshops
- Help maintain inventories of emergency supplies and equipment
- Assist elderly and disabled residents with basic storm preparation

Recovery Roles

- Staff emergency information centers
- Distribute supplies at designated locations
- Conduct basic damage surveys
- Support shelter operations
- Assist with cleanup efforts

Qualifications

- Strong interest in community safety and emergency preparedness
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Basic computer literacy for record-keeping and communications
- Ability to work effectively with diverse community members
- Reliable and dependable with good time management skills
- Willingness to learn about emergency management principles

Time Commitment

- Varies by event and needs

Benefits

- Comprehensive training in emergency preparedness and response
- Opportunity to build valuable skills while making a meaningful community impact
- Networking with emergency management professionals and community leaders
- Personal satisfaction from helping create a safer, more resilient community