

Hickory Bluff Preserve

Hammock Primitive Campsite

700 River Camp Trail – Osteen 32764

The Hammock Campsite sits back among the oaks on the natural bluff of the St. Johns River. Enjoy the tranquil beauty and natural surroundings of this Volusia County Conservation Land. Canoeing, kayaking and fishing are the perfect activities for this spot. This site is primitive camping only.

Things to Know for an enjoyable experience:

- The preserve is open sunrise to sunset to the public.
- Primitive camping means no facilities, such as water or electricity, are available. Bring all necessary water with you. No RVs or camping from motor vehicles. Security is not provided.
- There is a port-o-let on the property.
- This site can accommodate up to twenty-five campers.
- There is a fire ring.
- There is water access for hand-carried non-motorized vessels.
- A covered pavilion with two picnic tables and a charcoal grill is available to all campsites to share for day-use activities. Please do not set up or store items in the pavilion.
- Designated camping is behind the entry fence in the open area around the fire ring.
- Campsites are accessed through an automatic gate. You will receive the code before your date of reservation.

Help us protect this special place:

- Pack out all trash – leave no trace
- There are no receptacles provided. It is advised to put trash in vehicles at night due to possible animal activity.
- Please dispose of all fishing line, lures, and hooks to protect the life of our wildlife.
- Fires are to be in fire rings and grills only. Completely extinguish all fires.
- Fallen wood may be used for campfires. Do not cut down trees. Do not leave wood debris or campfire materials behind.
- Pets must be on a leash at all times. Pets cannot be tied to trees or poles and left unattended. Pet waste must be removed.
- Observe wildlife from a distance.
- Leave all plants, artifacts, and natural materials in place. Take only photographs and memories.

For everyone's safety and resource protection:

- Keep your permit readily accessible to show county personnel if requested.
- Up to eight vehicles and/or utility trailers for non-motorized vessels can park at Hammock Camp parking. No parking at the pavilion or other areas not designated for parking.
- The permit allows vehicle access to campsite parking only. Vehicles are not permitted to access the rest of Hickory Bluff, its roadways, or trails.
- Camping activities should not be for profit.
- Off-highway vehicles are not permitted in the preserve.
- Discharge of firearms, fireworks, firecrackers, or explosives is not allowed.
- Campers may be occasionally inconvenienced during their stay by necessary Land Management activities and maintenance.
