In accordance with the provisions of controlling law, even notwithstanding the fact that an exemption noted above may apply, the County hereby publishes the following information:

1. Summary of the proposed ordinance (must include a statement of the public purpose, such as serving the public health, safety, morals and welfare):

This ordinance is required by section 163.3177(3)(b) that local governments review the capital improvements element on an annual basis and provides that modification to update the five-year capital improvements schedule may be accomplished by ordinance.

2. An estimate of the direct economic impact of the proposed ordinance on private, for-profit businesses in the County, if any:

(a) An estimate of direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur;

(b) Any new charge or fee imposed by the proposed ordinance or for which businesses will be financially responsible; and

(c) An estimate of the County's regulatory costs, including estimated revenues from any new charges or fees to cover such costs.

There are no direct economic impact on private for-profit business in the County. The ordinance sets the required five-year capital improvement schedule.

3. Good faith estimate of the number of businesses likely to be impacted by the proposed ordinance:

The ordinance updates the five-year capital improvement schedule as required by Florida Statute. The ordinance has no direct impact on businesses.

4. Additional information the governing body deems useful (if any):

[You may wish to include in this section the methodology or data used to prepare the Business Impact Estimate. For example: County staff solicited comments from businesses in the County as to the potential impact of the proposed ordinance by contacting the chamber of commerce, social media posting, direct mail or direct email, posting on County website, public workshop, etc. You may also wish to include efforts made to reduce the potential fiscal impact on businesses. You may also wish to state here that the proposed ordinance is a generally applicable ordinance that applies to all persons similarly situated (individuals as well as businesses) and, therefore, the proposed ordinance does not affect only businesses].

The ordinance is mandated by section 163.3177(3)(b) and therefore exempted from a business impact estimate pursuant to section 125.66(3). However this business impact estimate is filed as good faith compliance with the statute.
