

FIRST EXTENSION OF DECLARATION OF LOCAL EMERGENCY FOR HURRICANE MILTON

WHEREAS, on October 5, 2024, the Governor of the State of Florida issued Executive Order Number 24-214 declaring a state of emergency for certain counties in Florida as a result of Hurricane Milton which threatened life and property; and

WHEREAS, the County Chair pursuant to County ordinance acting on behalf of the Volusia County Council declared a local state of emergency effective October 7, at 10:00 a.m., for all territories within the legal boundaries of Volusia County, including the unincorporated and incorporated areas; and

WHEREAS, the residents of Volusia County continue to suffer from the aftermath of Hurricane Milton and require emergency assistance and services; and

WHEREAS, section 252.38(3)(a)(5), Florida Statutes, and section 46-143, Code of Ordinances, County of Volusia, provide that the county may declare a local state of emergency for a 7 day duration, which may be extended as necessary in 7 day increments, may waive procedures and formalities otherwise required of the county by law and ordinance, and may take whatever prudent action is necessary to ensure the health, safety, and welfare of the community.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that effective October 14, 2024, the County Chair acting on behalf of the Volusia County Council hereby extends the previously declared local state of emergency for all territory within the legal boundaries of Volusia County, including the unincorporated and incorporated areas, for a 1-day duration.

ORDERED this 14th day of October, 2024.
